Introducing a new icon of luxury in the heart of South Jakarta The InterContinental® Jakarta Pondok Indah

Jakarta, Indonesia, March 2019 - The InterContinental Jakarta Pondok Indah has opened its doors in the affluent Pondok Indah area in the heart of South Jakarta, marking the latest addition to the InterContinental Hotels & Resorts brand in Indonesia and the South East Asia and Korea (SEAK) region.

With 70 years of experience providing seamless service in the travel industry, an insightful concierge team welcomes guests to a new world of luxury where they will enjoy the InterContinental Life in 311 elegantly appointed guest rooms and suites that embrace the perfect blend of function and form. Furnished with soothing tones and timeless artwork, the rooms and suites provide sweeping views of Pondok Indah, the South Jakarta district known for its exclusive estates and reputable international schools. Strategically integrated within a high-end commercial complex that includes a prominent shopping mall, office tower, family friendly facilities and a world-class golf course, the hotel is the perfect destination for both business and leisure travelers.

Envisioned as the most coveted wedding venue in Jakarta, InterContinental Jakarta Pondok Indah is fully equipped to bring dream weddings to life with an elegant Grand Ballroom suitable for 3,500 guests and a tropical outdoor terrace perfect for an intimate ceremony, whilst the Sky Box is situated above the ballroom and has been designed for guests to gather privately. The Chef's Table has been curated for the bridegroom's family to intimately experience the culinary team's creations for the big day. The InterContinental World of Weddings team provides stress-free wedding planning and support as they consult brides-to-be in the comfort of a chic Wedding Gallery & Lounge with exquisite refreshments.

The hotel is strategically located just 45 minutes from Soekarno-Hatta International Airport, offering unrivalled amenities, including the renowned Club InterContinental and featuring the city's only exclusive outdoor terrace dining, designed for hosting the city's sophisticated executives and business travelers.

InterContinental Meetings offers state-of-the-art meeting facilities accompanied by an events butler ready to provide a flawless experience for meeting delegates. Featuring The Studios, Jakarta's first club-inspired space reimagines the meeting experience, with a relaxed atmosphere designed to help stimulate the liveliest of discussions or review reports in the comfort of plush sofas with a cappuccino prepared by on-site baristas. Interactive show kitchens provide guests with a unique experience as wondrous and exotic dishes from around the world are created. For an energetic afternoon "pick me up", guests can enjoy The Sweet Spot, offering an array of sweets and confections exclusive to The Studios, and as the day draws to a conclusion indulge in the finest wines at The Vineyard or sample refined spirits in the whisky tasting room.

Guests seeking to revitalise body and mind are welcome in the Inaria Spa or to enjoy a private workout session at the Fitness & Movement Studio. Families can look forward to an exciting, fun-filled stay with children invited to swim in the kids swimming pool and playground area at the outdoor Planet Trekkers on the 8th floor. Direct access to Pondok Indah Water Park and kids' facilities in Pondok Indah Mall are also available for the little ones.

Boasting dynamic dining options, InterContinental Jakarta Pondok Indah is sure to become the focal point for South Jakarta's residents and guests to indulge in the finest offerings from around the world. All-day dining can be enjoyed at Sugar & Spice, with a menu spanning 5 continents, whilst a Teppanyaki 'speak-easy' bar takes intimate dining to new heights. Guests can connect with business colleagues and friends at The Lounge with unique single origin coffee and the finest tea. The Aqua Lounge is the perfect venue to wind down above the city's traffic with handcrafted cocktails by the pool.

"We are delighted to bring modern glamour to the exclusive Pondok Indah neighborhood through the InterContinental life" said Anil Pathak, General Manager of InterContinental Jakarta Pondok Indah. "The hotel redefines luxury, offering memorable experiences with unrivalled facilities and a commitment to service for our business travelers, families and wedding couples. We are Jakarta's premier destination for discerning travelers."
